Dear Parents

We are nearly half way through the term already and students are deeply immersed in their final assessments for the year.

Over the last couple of weeks Mrs Hensel will also be completing the final standardised tests that are required to meet Regional Benchmark standards.

Last Thursday and Friday I attended regional professional development on the new disability act and educational standards for students with a learning disability and how schools provide an inclusive education for our students. Students who attend small schools are very fortunate as we are in a position to ensure that all the needs of the individual learner are met every day. This is also done by our teachers understanding the learning styles of the individual, whether it is kinaesthetic, auditory or through creativity. All students require to be exposed to all to have their individual needs met.

The Totally Wild program will be aired tomorrow morning at 8.00am on channel 11.

I would like to congratulate the students who attended the Cricket Carnival at Jondaryan on Friday for their wonderful sportsmanship and behaviour. It is wonderful to receive positive feedback about our students. I would also like to thank the parents who transported the children on the day.

The school leaders would like to have a free dress day for the victims of the bush fires in NSW on Friday and are asking for a gold coin donation to support this cause. Students must wear enclosed shoes, a shirt/dress with a collar and sleeves and have a wide brimmed hat to meet with our sun smart standards.

Amanda and I will be out of the school on Thursday attending a Planning and Accountability meeting for 2014 budget preparation. If there is an issue that needs to be attended to please phone the school and a message will be passed on.

Have a great week everyone!

We are having a great time in P-2! This time of the year is a busy time, with lots of assessments and finishing off units of work. We are focusing on narrative writing for the next 2 weeks and our sound for next week is air/are. Please encourage your child to read to you every night and practice their sight words, and thank you for all those parents who support their children with their homework. Have a great week!

P & C News:

A Special Meeting will be held on Monday 18th November @ 7.30pm to select an auditor for our books. This is a Department requirement, and the normal monthly meeting will follow.
As there wasn’t many at the last P&C meeting, the final decision on the shade sails was deferred to the next meeting. The proposal is to cover the western side of the tiger turf area in front of the school using twin or a single sail. The quotes range between $9500 and $12500. This is a significant project, so please come to the next meeting and have your input or contact me. Thanks to Matt for giving the cricket team some coaching for the carnival last week. Chris Cleary and I met with Deb Frecklington, State MP for Nanango regarding the lack of flexibility with school bus eligibility. She has 6 other cases of schools and families with similar issues. She is putting together a submission to the Transport Minister.

Have a good week John Hensel 0429 92 42 92.
